PRESS RELEASE

VAISD to Begin Selling Reserved Seats for Panther Stadium

Van Alstyne High School will sell reserved seat season passes for the upcoming Panther football season in two stages. The first stage is for those individuals who had reserved seats at the old stadium followed by a stage when the general public will have the opportunity to purchase the passes. The passes, which cost $55.00, are for the 400 “chair back” seats located in the middle of the grandstands.

STAGE 1

Who: Individuals who purchased seats at the old stadium in 2007. (Season ticket holders from 2007 should be receiving a letter from the school covering the guidelines and timelines for purchasing the passes. If you had reserved seats at the old stadium and do not receive this letter, please contact the high school office at 903-482-8803.)

When:

- August 10 – 14, 8:00 – 4:00 at VAHS principal’s office
- August 15, at the stadium during the Panthers first scrimmage.

STAGE 2

Who: General public, including former season ticket holders who do not purchase their passes during Stage 1.

When:

- August 17 – 21, 24 – 27. 8:00 – 4:00 at VAHS
- August 28, 8:00 – 12:00 at VAHS

The passes are good for only the varsity home football contests. Selection of the seats will be done on a first come, first served basis. Individuals and companies are limited to purchasing seats for their immediate family and under no circumstances will an individual or business be allowed to purchase more than ten seats at one time.
